Three Ex-officio Munb. Commrs there will be 7 seats on the Munb. Council to be filled up by nomination, and submits a list of 13 gentlemen eligible for nomination (other than the present Munb. Commrs) leaving it to Govt to make the necessary selections

3 The elections are all in order and may be approved

4 As regards nomination, 9 seats are available Of these, Mr. Pallaniswa Chetty will fill one seat his term of appointment having recently been extended by two years, and Mr B Basavaraddya, Vice-President, and thus unless it is the intention of Govt to throw open the Office of Vice President to election selection will have to be made for the remaining 7 seats from among the present nominated Commrs and those unseated at the recent Munb. elections and from those included in the said list

5 Of the 13 gentlemen shown in the list Mr N C Narasimha Iyengar is probably a dismissed officer of the State P W D and Mr Veerabhadra Chetty, a retired official, was for a long time a Munb. Commr

In this connection, it may be submitted that out of the present Municipal Councillors no less than 8 have already secured seats in the Council for the next term through election and 3 seats will be filled by Ex Officio Councillors Three including the President and Vice-President, there will be no less than 13 old Municipal Councillors in the reconstituted Council If, therefore in view of the increased authority expected of the Municipal Council in various directions it should be considered desirable to infuse fresh blood into the Council so as to keep up its vitality and enthusiasm for Municipal work, selection may be made from the aforesaid list of 'outside' gentlemen for all the remaining 7 seats without perhaps risking the Continuity of policy

6 Draft of the usual Notification is submitted Suitable names will have to be entered under the head "II Nominated Councillors" If the Office of Vice President is to be thrown open to election the name of some gentleman will have to be substituted for Mr Basudevendhya and the words Vice President" omitted especially the first four, have served continuously on the Council for long periods, and it would perhaps be expedient to afford some other gentlemen, who are reported quite eligible and some of whom have actually offered their services, an opportunity to share in the Municipal administration of their City during the next triennium. An occasional change in its personnel may be expected to give the Council a fresh impetus and to place its working on an improved and up-to-date footing.

It is rather odd for the Chairman of a body to have to nominate its personnel, and the President has taken probably the best course by the principles usually kept in view in

Hon'ble 8 nominating Candidates in a mixed Council of elected and nominated members are

(I) Representation of minorities

(II) Representation of certain classes of people who lend weight and prestige to the Council, but do not generally resort to elections in India, for one reason or other

(III) Securing for the Council special experience, and expert advice

~~These principles have been endorsed by the~~ Decentralisation Commission as well

9 In this connection it has also ~~to be noted that~~ ordinarily, existing Councillors who have been unseated, or new Candidates who have not been successful should not be nominated ~~at nomination~~ except when pushed by one or more of the foregoing reasons as otherwise such nomination will be practically a ~~censure~~ Censure on the Electorate

10 Another principle requiring notice is that we must aim ~~as far as possible to~~ at training as ~~far~~ many of the intelligent ~~Citizens~~ citizens as possible in Municipal administration. And as all human machinery works well only under a system of checks and balances, outside Citizen Control is as much necessary on the acts of the Council as Council control is necessary over the Executive. No one is so competent to organise ~~such~~ efficient citizen Control as those who have been on the Council previously and in the interests of better Municipal administration & greater Civic activity, it is urgently neces-
